Working in a pandemic

On 1st January 2020 who could have predicted a worldwide pandemic? It has certainly been an unusual year. At East Devon Law we have adapted to the new situation and are delighted to be helping more clients than ever. We are now able to see people in our COVID-secure head office at Cadhay as well as providing a drive-through service. We also offer Zoom meetings and, where restrictions allow, we will make home visits if that is more convenient for you. We look forward to continuing to provide our highly rated legal serviced despite coronavirus.

We are approved!

East Devon Law’s award-winning team has achieved approval as an entity, regulated by the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx). This means that we can provide our clients not only with the assurance that regulation provides, but also with a full Probate Service. We are one of only six law firms in the country authorised by CILEx to provide legal work in the area of Probate.

New Oxfordshire Office

We opened a new Oxfordshire office in July 2020 and legal consultant, Anna Garland, is growing our business there. She is a graduate of the Chartered Institute of Legal executives (CILEx) specialising in Wills, Lasting Powers of Attorney, Court of Protection matters and Probate practice. Passionate about good client care and clear communication, Anna brings a wealth of experience to her role. Feedback from her first clients has been fantastic and we are delighted to have her on board. If you know anyone who may like to use our services in Oxfordshire please use our 10% loyalty discount to introduce them to Anna at anna.garland@eastdevonlaw.co.uk or on 01865 595537.

Ian Hunt appointed to the Board of CILEx

Ian Hunt has been a champion and supporter of Chartered Legal Executives for a long time - it's quite literally in his blood! His grandfather was a founding member of the then Institute of Legal Executives and his father is the Senior Partner at East Devon Law. Now we are happy to announce that Ian has been appointed to the CILEx Board. Ian says "I'm delighted to help support and develop the Institute because it brings a high level of professionalism to our work which benefits both us and, crucially, our clients."

Racing ambitions!

Bluebell, our original minivan doesn't just make deliveries around the country lanes of Devon - on her days off she becomes a racing demon! In July she made a record-breaking run at Shelsley Walsh Hill Climb becoming the first commercial vehicle in modern motor sports history to run in a live event. We were thrilled when her exploits were featured in Octane Magazine this Autumn.
